MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1869

ORANGE COURT.

Orange Court was in session last week, Judge Tourgee presiding, Solicitor Bulla prosecuting officer for the State. Members of the Bar, Gov. Graham, N. F. Waddell, John W. Norwood, Henry K. Nash, Josiah Turner, Jr., Samuel F. Phillips, Major York, Major Graham, Thos. Webb, Capt. James Graham, Thos. Argo, John Moring and Major Hamilton.

Only thirty-five cases on the State docket, one for arson, charged with burning barns, out of which grew the hanging of two negroes, heretofore mentioned in the SENTINEL.

For want of a Judge there was no Court until Wednesday, the Judg being detained by sickness. This is the first time he has had any excuse for his failure to hold Court. The want of punctuality and promptness in the Judge to attend has had its effect upon the people of Orange as well as Person.

Out of twenty-eight witnesses called by its Solicitor, on Wednesday, only six answered. When Judges are remiss in their attendance on Court it is no wonder if witnesses and parties become so too.

The Court was opened by the Judge's charge to the Grand Jury. His charge was concluded, like the Governor's proclamation. He charged, with great force, against Ku Klux. He enumerated the outrages which had been committed against the Leagues. He spoke of them as unprecedented among Christian people. He spoke of them as outrages mostly against the black race. This, we thought, was well calculated to keep up the hostility of the black against the white race.

As usual, he charged that the Grand Jury must take, as true, any statement made by a witness before them, however bad his character, unless he made statements contradicting himself. This, we thought, was for the purpose of causing the Grand Jury to look with favor upon the infamous characters who might be before them as witnesses.

Mr. Thomas B. Hill was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury for Orange, and that night some thief stole all the foreman's chickens.

The Judge omitted to charge the Grand Jury about the burning of crops, barns, horses and mules, for this would have been trenching on the Leagues. One of them was in jail, charged with barn burning, yet no special allusion was made to barn burning.

There were thirty five cases, only, on the State docket. This is an improvement on the part of the Leagues, brought about by the punishment inflicted by the Ku Klux. Larceny is greatly on the decrease in Orange. The coming of the Judge seems to have emboldon the Leagues. On the night of his arrival the chickens of the foreman of the Grand Jury were stolen.—Up to the appearance of a counter secret organization to the Leagues there was no security for a sheep, chicken, hog or cow, in the county of Orange. One farmer who, for thirty years and more, had a flock of five hundred sheep, now has thirty, another with a flock of one hundred and fifty has forty, another with eighty has not a sheep to his name. Nearly every farmer in Orange had a small flock of sheep, but few of them have one left. It is as rare to meet a sheep in Orange as an honest man in office. We heard a large farmer say he had not a sheep or hog to his name. Smoke houses in Orange have gone out of use. There was no security for meat in these convenient and useful houses. The meat, for safe keeping, is put up stairs in the dwelling houses. Last year we knew a gentleman farmer who had fifty barrels of corn stored away in a bed room of the house instead of his corn crib. Men used to the comfort and conveniences of life will not long live in this way, they will move from the country or they will take into their own hands, the redress of their own grievances and wrongs. More men have moved and are now preparing to move from Orange than was ever known before. Larceny, Leagues, arson and taxation, have driven them from home. Something should be done to stay the tide of emigration. There are others who seem determined to fight out like the Leagues on the line of secret societies.—They seem determined that there shall be security for "cattle on the hills and hogs in the range," notwithstanding Judge Reade's infamous legislative address. When rapes are threatened or committed by Leaguemen, they seem determined to hang.—When barns, containing grain and horses, have been burned by Leaguers they have hung. This is done in defiance of the President of the Leagues, his proclamation and his militia.

Last week Dr. William Strudwick's house was burned, whether the result of accident or the work of an incendiary has not been ascertained. On Thursday night last Mr. Felix Wilson was fired at from the bushes, he attempted to return the fire but his pistol snapped. The shooting of Mr. James Haughton, of Chatham, on the highway, and the applause given to the attempted murder by the Governor's organ may have instigated the shooting at Mr. Wilson. Mr. Wilson does not belong to the League and of course the Governor will not call out the militia for his protection.

Dennis Hanes, who was convicted at the last term of the Court, of larceny, was again convicted on Friday. The Judge set the verdict aside at the last term of the Court and directed the Solicitor to enter a nol pros, unless he should find additional evidence by the next term of the Court. The Solicitor did not enter a nol pros, Dennis was again convicted and again the Judge set aside the verdict. We have no hesitation in saying that such a proceeding was never before heard of, it is unprecedented in the judicial annals of the State.

MAJOR SMITH AND THE LEASE

The President of the North Carolina Railroad is out in two several cards upon the lease of the North Carolina Railroad. We will let the President answer the President. In a card of the 29 of October he says:

Gentlemen—A few facts and figures are necessary to refute the false charges, assertions and statements of various editors and others in relation to the proposition to lease the North Carolina Railroad. I will not trouble myself to answer in detail the many editorials of men who know nothing of what they write, who make assertions devoid of proof, and point to conclusions not justified by reason, and who have in all their writings shown no ability to handle the subject, or given information to the public.

First: The SENTINEL asserts that the Directors had executed and delivered a certain contract to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, leasing the North Carolina Railroad, not subject to the ratification of the Stockholders. I do not pretend to give his exact words, but this is the substance. The statement is utterly untrue. These are the facts: the Directors authorized me to enter into contract with the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company leasing the North Carolina Railroad at no less than two hundred and forty thousand dollars a year. I, of course, would get as much more as possible, but was not authorized to take less. I have not signed, sealed and delivered any contract, but have been waiting for propositions from other parties, with the view, of accepting the highest bid, if from a responsible source, intending close the contract with no one until it was ratified by the Stockholders, and for the reason the meeting of the 11th November was called. Why, but for their endorsement did the Directors call a meeting of the Stockholders.

We think it uncharitable in a public functionary to mislead us, and then abuse us because we believed him and were misled!

A gentleman who had much knowledge of the matter told us the "lease had been signed sealed and delivered." We asked if it was not subject to the action of the Stockholders, and he said, no. Since the conversation we have read the lease which declares that the "North Carolina Railroad Company hath demised, let, hired, farmed out, and delivered to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, its Railroad, including its superstruction Road bed" &c. &c

If it is subject to the action of the Stockholders it is certainly not so expressed in the bond. Why did the "SENTINEL assert that the Directors had accepted and delivered a contract to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company," which President Smith regrets "is untrue?"

The following note from the President, which he wrote and sent out to Stockholders, with the terms of the lease, answers the question:

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, N. C. R. R. Co. }
Company Shops, N. C., Oct. 20, 1869. }

To the Stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad Company:

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully call your attention to the following contract, entered into by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company and others.

(Signed) Your ob't. serv't,
W. A. SMITH, Pres't.

Others, are not named in the contract, and others will have little or nothing to do with it. It is too fat a job to let others into. We are now admonished to be more careful in talking after President Smith.—He said the Road had been leased, we believed him and so published, this is the extent of our offence and nothing more.—Now which is it, has the Road been leased or not? If we say it has, there is the President's letter of the 29th contradicting us flatly. If we say it has not, there is the President's letter of the 20th contradicting us just as flatly, but not so readily; which shall it be, how shall we choose, what shall we say, leased or not leased?

Again the President in his card of the 29th says:

We will notice Mr. Turner's administration, which I am free to confess was far more successful than any previous one had been, and a disposition on his part to parade it is really pardonable. But it was not altogether so profitable to the corporation as he would have the public believe. He asserts that during the fiscal year of his administration the Road cleared three hundred and sixteen thousand six hundred and thirty-eight dollars and eighty one cents. Let us proceed to prove this assertion unfounded. We will take the annual report of Mr. Turner's administration, and examine on pages 44 and 45, and it is plainly shown that the

|---|---|
| Receipts from all sources were | $585,411 09 |
| The total expenses | 508,526 43 |
| Leaving as nett income | $ 76,884 66 |
| Upon the strength of which his Directors gave you a Scrip Dividend of | $240,000 00 |

We have never "paraded" or taken credit to ourselves for a successful administration of the Road. We gave all the credit to Mr. James Anderson the Superintendent, and to Wm. A. Caldwell the Treasurer, and to Mr. Stagg the Secretary. We arrogated nothing to self. The receipts of the Road and the total expenses are just as President Smith stated them above. Such a statement is neither candid or fair and calculated to mislead.

The current or running expenses of the Road were only $268,772 28, which left the nett income $316,638 81.

It was so reported and received by the Stockholders. As to the dividend declared payable in bonds, Mr. Smith knew and now knows we did not approve of it. And we so told the Board of Directors and the Stockholders.

In President Smith's card of Oct. 29, he shows through the Secretary, that the Income of the road in 1869, was only $188,923,58.

In the report of July 21, 1869, made to the Stockholders, he puts down:

|---|---|
| Receipts from all sources | $658,117,42 |
| Total expenses of operating the Road | 261,233,09 |
| Leaving as nett profits over operating expenses | $356,884,33 |

Now there is no mistake, the Road last year cleared $356,884,33 over and above operating or running expenses. Why then lease it for $240,000 and thus give to the Raleigh & Gaston Road $356,884,33.

The year before, the nett income over ordinary or running expenses was $316,638, 81. With these figures staring us in the face we say such a contract of lease is wholly incompatible with common sense or common honesty. There are other matters in President Smith's two several letters or cards which we will notice in seperate articles as they do not concern the lease.

THE FAIR AND EXHIBITION.—We are glad to be able to state, says the Wilmington Journal, that letters are being received daily by the proper officers making inquiries in regard to the exhibition of articles and stock at the Cape Fear Agricultural Association. The prospect for a good exhibition of articles is most flattering and the attendance will be very large. Our immediate people are beginning to manifest great interest in its success and will contribute very much thereto, and from distant States applications are on file for space to exhibit articles.

During the week, too, ample provisions will be made for the amusement of visitors, both at the Fair Grounds and the City. Ford will open the Theatre with a fine company, and the Tremaine Brothers will give concerts at night, and make exhibition of their musical instruments during the day at the Association's Hall.

We are much encouraged by the flattering prospects and look forward with much faith in a crowning success at our First Annual Fair.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—I noticed in the Sentinel, a week or ten days ago, that during the Fair, a paper was read before the Agricultural Society of the State, by some distinguished gentleman, whose name has escaped me, "upon cheap transportation of rail roads." The impression was somehow made upon my mind, that the essayist took decided ground in favor of a great reduction of the present rates of freight and travel on roads of North Carolina and the South, arguing that it would not only redound to the benefit of the communities through which these roads passed and to that indeed of the public generally; but that experiment, in numerous other cases, had shown in a short while a very decided increase of the revenues of the roads themselves; something on the principle I presume, that every reduction of the mail rates both in this country and Great Britain has invariably resulted in the increase of the revenue of the respective Post Office departments. In the latter case the reduction put it in the power of the very paupers of the land to write; and in the former our smallest farmers could ride and send to market produce which now wastes and rots at home, because it would be totally consumed by the cost of transportation.

I did not have the pleasure of hearing this paper, nor am I certain of the position of the author, but have been hoping that it would be given to the public, for the subject is one of much more importance than is generally attached to it. And whether the author takes the ground I have intimated or its opposite, its publication would probably tend to elicit discussion and possibly bring about reform. Let me illustrate. The freight on the North Carolina Railroad between High Point, Thomasville and other points in that direction—high before—has been increased, as I learn in some instances three fold or more, so that whereas it required 8 cts per ton to carry dried fruit from High Point to Greensboro', it now requires 28 cts, and first class freight has gone in like proportion. I do not know that I am accurate; but at all events, this is so far true, that wagons are running between the points mentioned in opposition to the road and make I learn, a handsome thing of it. I heard a gentleman remark the other day that a bushel of wheat could be brought from Chicago to Baltimore and thence to Raleigh, for the same amount it would require to carry it from Thomasville to Greensboro'.

Now the question might be properly discussed, with benefit to all concerned not only whether this policy was in strict accordance with the principles of political economy; but whether it was not in bad faith to the people and in shameless violation of the promises and inducements held out to them when they were called upon to help in the construction of this road? Would any one at that time have dared to intimate that such a discrimination was to be made against any particular portion of the people along its route? Is not such discrimination contrary to the spirit of the Constitution, in violation of republicanism and a species of down right swindling? But I beg pardon, Mr. Editor, for the display of "old Fogyism" which is so silly as to persist in thinking and speaking of "good faith," "constitutional rights" and "republican principles." Let us have the essay.

GUILFORD.

STRAWBERRIES.—We return thanks to Mrs. Giles Mebane, of this vicinity for a mess of very fine Strawberries, being a portion of the second crop for the current year, gathered from her Strawberry bed in the garden. Strawberries in winter! is something new even in this Southern climate.—Milton Chronicle.

We lately published an account of the sting of a hornet killing a colored man in this county. Some of the papers copied it with an air of doubt as to its truth, and we desire to remark that the facts we stated are true to the letter, as Col. J. C. Pipaix and other gentlemen will testify. The man died in 20 minutes after being stung in the temple.—Milton Chronicle.

The next elections occur on the 30th instant, in Texas and Mississippi, on adopting the new State constitutions, and for officers under them. The total registration in Mississippi is 139,937, of whom 59,176 are white and 80,761 colored. There were 76,016 votes cast at the convention election of which 63,822 were colored and 69,787 were for the convention. In Texas the vote for the convention last year was 54,388 giving 30,896 majority in its favor; but several counties are not included in the returns.

THE MISSOURI OUTLAW—INTERESTING SKETCH OF HIS CAREER, &c.

A letter, purporting to come from Sam Hilderbrand, the notorious Missouri outlaw and ex-Confederate ranger, dated Memphis, Tenn., October 17, has been published in the St. Louis Times, giving Hilderbrand's account of himself since the end of the war, in which he asks to be "let alone," declares that he always wished to be a peaceable and honest man, but was not permitted to remain in quiet by his "enemies the radicals." In regard to his troubles, adventures, &c., Hilderbrand says:

"After the excitement about the war, its troubles seemed to die out, and men seemed disposed to heal over past sores, in the spring of 1868 I came back to St. Francois county and talked to many of the good people of the county concerning the propriety of returning to my old home.—All I spoke to of all parties said, 'Sam, come home.'

"I came back in good faith. I moved to my mother's old place and lived there six months. I then moved to Hillsboro and stayed there until last fall. Finding it hard to make a living there, I moved on the Mississippi river, near Rush Tower, and chopped wood all last winter. I then moved back to the three rivers, on the Sam Hard place, to raise a crop. There I lived and worked until the 4 h of June last, when I was waylaid and shot by Jim McLane, or Walter Evans, and two others, that I or my friends may yet call to account.

"Jim McLane, McQuinn and others, waylaid my house to murder me in April last, for several days. On the 4th of June I was shot through the thigh at my house. I went to my uncle William's, where they attacked me six days after. They shot all day at me there. I selected Jim McLane, whom I knew only by description, and shot him from the house. Sheriff Brecklinridge and the balance of his party took good care of their scalps after I killed McLane. It was then three o'clock, and as I had eaten no breakfast or dinner, I cooked my own supper and ate it while they kept firing at me. I was often amused to see my old aunt William dodging the balls as they came in through the cracks. They fired the house, and as I had finished my supper I abandoned my burning fortification. As I went out, I counted thirty-five men that were guarding the burning house. I saw George Doggett, Asa Jackson, Jo. McMahan and Hill's boy. When the house got too hot for comfort I left it and walked within six feet of some of the guard.—They seemed blind, or at least they did not offer to shoot me.

"I wish to say to the radicals in and about Farmington to beware how they mistreat my wife and children, as I hear they have and them under arrest by order of the drunken Bowen, and I will say to Bob Hill and Jo. Mcmahan to walk smartly and not hit my family a lick. They helped to kill my children, but they have not yet killed me.

"Jim McLane was a tool in the hands of that infamous creature and coward, Gen. St. Gem, of St. Genevieve, who will some day, no matter where he may hide himself, have to answer for many crimes he planned and was too cowardly to execute, but got others to do it for him. McLane murdered Judge Burs, of St. Genevieve, and preacher Polk, over 83 years of age.

"I wish to say to Governor McClurg that I could have easily killed him while he was in Farmington if I had wanted to do so, but I look on him as a gentleman, and that he is misled by listening to lies from bad men, who are radicals.

"All I have written is every word true. I do not want to be killed yet awhile; neither do I wish to kill any one if they will let me alone. My enemies have charged me with being a thief during the war. I was not. All that I fairly captured gave away to the widows and orphans who had been robbed and were suffering.

"I will refer to any honest man who knew me whether I was not an honest man. In the latter part of August the radical government of Missouri had four hundred or five hundred armed men hunting me down, and declared martial law. What a temptation one poor, hunted man can raise! It is because of guilty consciences. They know the wrongs they did, and know that vengeance should fall upon the guilty.

"I have had two bushels of radical bullets shot at me, but only two ever drew blood. The old Indian, when he fired fourteen shots at General Washington, and missed every shot, said that the Great Spirit turned the balls aside. God has turned away the bullets aimed at my life, and I put my trust in Him, and believe the balance of my days will be spent more happily.

"I am in as fine spirits and good health as I ever was. My wound is entirely healed, and I am good for many years of life if my foes allow me to live in peace; and if they do not, on them be the consequences.

"Let spies and informers keep at a safe distance from me. I do not think I can be easily trailed, but still it is safest for any person that has a desire to hunt up Hilderbrand to let that alone. Remember the greenhorn that started out to hunt grizzly bears in California.

"In order that those who know me and my family may know that the writer of this is 'Sam' Hilderband, and not a fictitious person, I will here give the names of my wife and children: my wife, Margaret; children, Henry, Rebecca, Mary Elizabeth, Nancy Catherine, Margaret Ann, George Washington. Yours,

"SAM HILDERBRAND."

CAPE FEAR AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION FAIR.—In reply to numerous letters and enquiries I am daily receiving, I desire to ask all papers interested in the success of our Fair to publish the following information:

1. All persons can exhibit articles, but only Life and Annual members can compete for premiums. The payment of twenty-five dollars constitutes a person a Life member, and two dollars an Annual member.

2. All articles competing for premiums must be entered at the Secretary's office upon the Grounds, by Wednesday, 17th inst., at 10 o'clock, a. m.

3 All articles intended for exhibition will be brought to Wilmington and returned after the Fair, by all the railroads and steamboats, free of charge.

4. All articles should be securely bagged, boxed or barreled, and all stock should be attended by a groom, or be sufficiently well broken to stand to the halter.

5. Everything should be plainly marked and directed to Gen'l. R. Ransom, Marshal, C. F. A. A. at Wilmington.

JOS. A. ENGELHARD,
Sec. Ex. Committee.

The tariff men and free traders have already commenced interviewing the President in order to obtain his views on the tariff. The President, it is believed, will recommend to Congress that the present tariff and internal revenue laws be allowed to remain without material alteration for another year.

The Observer says that Mecklenburg county raised a good crop of corn this year.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST. It would be pronounced a reckless squandering of money by purchasing a second rate or inferior article when the same amount would procure the best the market affords. To enable you to judge you must fall back, in a measure, on recommendations, testimonials, &c., from parties who are pre-eminently qualified to speak on the merits of the article under consideration. The Steinway Piano has received within the past ten years, nearly fifty Medals, Prizes and First Class Premiums, among which we will mention, the First Grand Gold Medal of Honor at the Paris Exposition in 1867; the Grand Testimonial Medal of the Paris Societe des Beaux Arts, a Grand Gold Medal of Merit from the King of Sweden and Norway, likewise Academic honors at Berlin, and the First Prize Medal at the Exhibition in London 1862. If there is a superior instrument to Steinway's to be found in the world, buy it.

NEW ADS.—See Musical Card, Mr. Bonner.

Extensive auction sale in Wilmington of stocks and real estate.

Upholstering and Mattrass making, Rufus R. Harrison & Bro.

IMPORTANT.—See the notice of the Secretary of "Oakwood Cemetery."

And while you are at the place, read all the other advertisements in the column.

PIANO SOLD.—A Piano, of six octaves, made in this city by Lee Whitaker, deceased, was sold at the Court House on Saturday, by his administrator, and knocked off to his sister, for twenty-nine dollars.

MAGIC.—The professional tools of a strapped Professor of Magic were sold by Sheriff Lee, at the Court House, on Saturday, and were knocked off at $50. While the articles were on exhibition, we saw a Lawyer amusing the bystanders with the "box trick." He opened it and showed there was nothing in it but emptiness; closed it, turned it over, then opened it again with the same result; a third time he closed it, opened it, and, behold! it had nothing in it again. But we have seen Lawyers perform that trick before.

CONFERENCE.—The North Carolina Conference of the M. E Church, South, meets in Newbern on the 24th inst.

BATTLE ROYAL.—About forty darkies were congregated at the Mayor's office on Saturday, some as witnesses, some as parties, to a general fight which occurred on Friday night, while the combatants were on their way from a corn-shucking in the neighborhood. As there was not much damage done they were dismissed on their own recognizances.

FRACAS.—We learn a fracas occurred somewhere in the neighborhood of the Market, on Saturday evening, between Richard Smith, a white man, and a colored man, whose name we did not learn, in which Smith shot the colored man, but without doing him any damage. Both were arrested and committed for examination.

ELECTION.—The Standard of Saturday morning gives the election results in several Northern States, which have gone as they have been in the habit of going heretofore, but Kernel Pike, it seems, had not heard of the election in New York, as he says nothing about it. How did it go in New York, Kernel, and how was it before?

Self Advertised.—PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION for the Hair carries with it its own best advertisement. As the light shines through the bottle you see that the liquid is clear as the azure of heaven. You smell it and find the odor agreeable. You apply it and it changes gray hair to any natural shade without soiling the scalp or producing headache. Nothing can be more harmless.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.—We have received the first number of the second volume of the "Carolina Farmer," Wm. H. Bernard, editor and proprietor, Wilmington, N. C. The FARMER has been changed from a monthly to a weekly journal, is neatly printed and filled with choice original and selected reading matter; it has eight pages of five columns each, and is well worth the subscription price, which is only $2 a year.

We learn from the farmers of this vicinity that an average crop of wheat is being put in, and that the seeding is done with more than ordinary care.

The winter oats, which have become a crop of considerable importance, latterly, have come up and are looking fine, and a large yield is promised.—Charlotte Observer.

TROOPS TO CHAPEL HILL.—Company B, 8th U. S. Infantry under command of Br. Lieut. Ritter, passed through our streets from the barracks to the Depot, on Saturday morning, preparatory to taking the train to Chapel Hill.

We are assured the people of Chapel Hill will be pleased to have this Company stationed there; indeed they asked, week before last, to have them sent, when His Excellency remarked, he thought it best not to send any troops there, at all. While we believe the citizens of Chapel Hill and vicinity are as law abiding as the citizens of any other section, we have no idea that they object to proper troops being stationed among them; and we have no doubt that the officers and men of this Company will find their sojourn there pleasant and agreeable.

THE METROPOLITAN GIFT COMPANY.—A week or two ago we inserted an advertisement of Harper, Wilson & Co., 195 Broadway, N. Y., who proposed to give every body a fortune at a dollar a head. The advertisement was sent us through an advertising Agency that we have always found prompt and reliable; but on its appearance, a gentleman informed us that this firm of Harper, Wilson & Co, had not been in the habit of doing the clean thing with those who had sent them money for tickets, in short, that they had acted towards him and others very much Like swindlers, if they are not. We immediately took out the advertisement and wrote to the Agent who had sent it, enquiring as to the reliability of the party; the answer received is not satisfactory, hence the advertisement is finally dropped, and we very much regret its appearance at all.

OLD LAND MARK GOING.—We notice that Kemp P. Battle Esq. is removing out of his dwelling house yard on Fayetteville street, the old building used by him as a law office. This is a notable structure. It was erected by Gen. Robert Williams, who was a very popular Solicitor for the State. It was the residence and law office for many years, of Peter Brown Esq., one of the ablest lawyers North Carolina ever had. The venerable and no less able Chief Justice Ruffin occupied it during many sessions of the Supreme Court. After him Judge Battle, late of the Supreme Court, for ten years wrote his opinions within its walls. It was occupied likewise by the eminent lawyer S. F. Phillips, Esq., and the late Judge Person.

It is therefore redolent of law.

It has some claims also to medical and theological interest. In it our fellow citizen and eminent physican, Dr. F. J. Haywood and his wife, spent their honeymoon and early married life. And the distinguished divine, Bishop Atkinson, lived in it for a short time, soon after he removed to this diocese.

The job of removal tasks all the energies of our energetic friend, Mr. Allcott, as it is discovered, greatly to the astonishment of those familiar with the light modern tenements, that the timbers are perfectly sound and remarkably heavy—the sleepers being nearly eighten inches thick and hewn, while the walls are all filled in with brick between the boards and ceiling.

In another column will be found the Musical Card of Mr. E. A. Bonner. Mr. B. was a pupil of Maestro Alfred Jaell, of the Conservatoire Royale, Dresden, and, we add with pleasure, is a North Carolinian.

Those of our citizens whose education induces them (and we know there are many such) to regard Music in the light in which it is accepted on the Continent, viz: of an Art, will doubtless be glad to know they can avail themselves of the services of an Artist, instructing privately; for outside of the Conservatoire—and we have no schools as yet deserving that name in the State—this is evidently the most available course for prosecuting this study in any liberal or extended sense.

Music is not the mere strumming of trashy insipidities by your equally unpathetic 'Seminary' Miss, whose Curriculum, in this connexion is too often bounded by a two years cursory application, as pupil, frequently receiving not more than one lesson a week, and then having to practice in rooms where the confusion reigning utterly distracts.

So long as our best cultivations permit this poisonous system of half educating to continue and to satisfy, it is scarcely a matter of wonder that the other Professions should so generally indulge themselves in slurs upon the one in question. The miserable results of soi distant musical education they have constantly before them; as an art, it is studied but rarely, amongst us.

A MAN'S LIFE SAVED BY THE CLOCK STRIKING THIRTEEN.—Mr. John Hatfield, a man who died in England at the age of 102, was a soldier in the time of William and Mary. He was tried and condemned to death for sleeping at his post, on the terrace of Windsor. He absolutely denied the charge, and solemnly declared that instead of sleeping on his post he distinctly heard the clock of St. Paul's strike thirteen at midnight. The truth of this was much doubted by the court, because of the great distance of St. Paul's from the post where he was stationed. While under the sentence of death, affidavit was made by several persons that the clock of St. Paul's did actually strike thirteen instead of twelve upon that night.—This circumstance saved his life, and he was pardoned by His Majesty. This number 13, usually considered so unlucky, could not be called so in the case of John Hatfield.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Two policemen were severely hurt to-day in attempting to restrain a party of negroes who were disturbing a colored Baptist congregation.

Commodore Higgins and his officers have arrived. Their statements clearly disprove all allegations of treachery on their part.

MADRID, Nov. 6.—Senor Ovearz has been released from prison.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Hoffman, in answering the question, what the Democrats intended to do with their victory, said, the Democrats proposed making the Legislature honest and use it for promoting the interests of all classes of the people which the Radicals have not done. We propose to abolish such laws as infringe upon the rights of localities and secure them the right to govern themselves.

The new legislature however, is not to be radical; it is proposed to show to the State and country that Democracy can be as moderate in victory, as patient under defeat.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Mr. Peabody's death is universally regretted. The News says, "Mr. Peabody was not a man of emotional and impulsive benevolence, but of rare judicious and widespread beneficence. His liberality was not posthumous; he gave from his own substance and did not surrender what death wrested from him. His services both to his native land and adopted country were fittingly and graciously recognized in Royal letters and in the thanks of Congress. Persons in passing his statue daily do not need to learn from the consummate man of business how to gain money. His charity may teach them how it may be wisely spent."

SCHOOL BOOKS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF

TEXT-BOOKS

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Office Publishers' Sup't of Introduction,
RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 21, 1869.

A DEPOSITORY has been established at Raleigh, in charge of R. I. Alfred Williams, for the following books, which were adopted Aug. 5th, 1869 by the State Board of North Carolina for uniform use in the Public Schools:

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH & YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
PECK'S SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October next. The maps &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

Text Books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public schools in the State.

Similar terms will be made accessible to Private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the State contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with
C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School Snow Hill, N. C.:

SNOW HILL, N. C.

"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALDERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALDERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Gamut in particular. J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition. M. CLOSS.

NEWTON, N. C.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work. M. L. LITTLE,
Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy N. C.:

AUBURN, N. C.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCHCOMB IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. OBERCHAIN, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.:

WARRENTON, N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Gamut's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through expanded stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Gamut, with much acceptance. G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.

WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior, in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Courses, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.

I use Monteith's series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FOY.

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 26th, 1866.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern states. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller. The National First and 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1868.

NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1866.

NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1866.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, as soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

|---|---|
| KNICKERBOCKER, | $16,54 |
| EQUITABLE, | 17,44 |
| NORTH AMERICA, | 21,16 |
| BROOKLYN, | 21,09 |
| UNIVERSAL, | 27,24 |
| JOHN HANCOCK, | 18,27 |
| THE NATIONAL, | 63,48 |
| THE ÆTNA, | 13,41 |

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 585 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
